A pilgrimage from Canterbury to Rome Saturday 17 March at 19h00

Amélie Lecoeuche will talk to us and invite questions about her experience.

“The pilgrim route from Canterbury to Rome is about 2,000 km long. At an average of 25 km per day, that is 80 days of walking. With a rucksack, a solid stick and a sturdy pair of boots, this is exactly how I spent the summer of 2017.”

Refreshments: A simple meal for all

Donations please: a suggestion of 20 francs which will go to the Support Centre for Refugees in Rome.

Please sign up on the list in Church by Sunday 11 March or send an e-mail to christchurchoffice@bluewin.ch
