

The Book of Psalms

Presence, Prayer and Praise

Saturday 2 March 2019 10am – 1.00pm at Holy Trinity Church, Geneva
Led by Clare Amos

Within the Old Testament canon, the Book of Psalms holds a unique and cherished place. It contains our words to God, which have become in turn God's words to us. John Calvin, a figure not unknown in this city, once used the vivid description of the psalms as 'an anatomy of all parts of the soul'. Clare has long had a particular love for the psalms and this study morning just before the beginning of Lent will seek to explore the original contexts in which the various psalms came to birth, look at their present setting within scripture and consider their use in the life of the church.

All are welcome. It is helpful to know approximate numbers of those attending, for duplication of handouts etc. So, if you are planning to come please can you let Holy Trinity Church office know at admin@holytrinitygeneva.org, Tel. +41 22 731 5155.
