

Ruth and Jonah

Boundary Breaking Love

Saturday 5 October 2019 10am – 1.00pm at Holy Trinity Church, Geneva

Led by Clare Amos

The books of Ruth and Jonah are two short literary treasures that can be found within the Old Testament. The two books are very different, but in their individual ways they both seek to share the message that God's love and compassion is not confined by boundaries erected by human beings. This study morning will seek to explore both books – devoting about half the time to each. We will explore the contexts in which they were written and the message that they each seek to share – which is still very relevant today.

All are welcome. It is helpful to know approximate numbers of those attending, for duplication of handouts etc. So if you are planning to come please can you let Holy Trinity Church office know at:
